LETTER OF INTENT

Apeejay Institute of Design New Delhi India (established by Apeejay Education Society) and Apeejay Stya University, Haryana , India

And

AKV| St. Joost,

Avans University of Applied Sciences, Breda,

The Netherlands

and

Willem de Kooning Academy Rotterdam/ University of Applied Sciences Rotterdam,

The Netherlands

The parties hereby express their intention of working together and co-operate with each other towards having a strategic alliance and to establish variety of academic arrangements of mutual benefits for the following for which terms and conditions shall be mutually agreed between the parties from time to time.

a. Supporting Apeejay Institute of Design (AID) and -Apeejay Stya University (ASU) in their ambition of realizing an accreditation of their Bachelor and Master courses using European standards and

b. Building a sustainable relationship between the above institutes/ Universities.

For all the partners in this Letter of Intent it is clear that, on the basis of perceived mutual benefit, cooperation of all our art schools can contribute to reach the main aims of innovation, comparision, insight in cultural traditions and international accreditation.

The Dutch partners (Netherland Universities) have been informed about the sincere wish of Apeejay Institute of Design (AID) and Apeejay Stya University (ASU) to get an international accreditation for their Educational Programs at the AID and ASU.

This agreement could be the starting point for the AID/ ASU to start with a parallel proces of innovation, apart from their existing curricula which are more directed towards the current Indian market besides being beneficial to Netherland Universities and its students who will also enrich their knowledge by having a closer understanding and deepness of indian cultural traditions.

This proces of innovation opens opportunities by offering to students of all the parties new Study Programs, also offer to the Apeejay Institute of Design (AID) a chance to profile the

The Dutch partners will support the AID /ASU as follows

*advise and consult on educational matters as well as on matters concerning quali assurance;

*offering workshops and student collaboration projects in New Delhi;

* offering educational advise for appoinment of Dean of Studies, Manager of Education an Innovation;

* providing course material on new courses[1] or studyprograms to be offered by the Apeeja Institute of Design / ASU in the near future.

To cement the relationship between the parties hereto, officials from Apeejay Institute c Design in New Delhi, India/ ASU, the AKV|St. Joost in Breda and Willem de Koonin Academy in Rotterdam, the Netherlands will visit the partner institutions at their own cost and expenses in order to lay a solid foundation under the intended goals for mutual benefit of the parties.

1) - a study program in "the management of design processes in an international context";

- a study program in "learning how to design for an international market";

- a study program in "conceptual thinking and design methodology";

- a study program in "(design-) Technology & Comminicationstrategy"

These kind of study programs can become part of the AID, or -- as a new School – or – part of the Apeejay Stya University. They also can offer Minors to the existing programs of the AID and are the basis for the further innovation of the AID.
